Father's Day

June 21, 2015

Morning Worship

Ten Fifty Five A.M.

---

* Please stand as you are able.

Greeting

Mr. Melvin Ezzell

Meditation

God our Savior and Strength,
when we fear that we are perishing,
cast about on windswept waters,
you sent Jesus to still the storm.
Speak to us with power and love
to calm our troubled souls
so that we may live in faith;
through Jesus Christ our peace. Amen

Prelude

Children's Sermon

Mr. Ezzell

Responsive Reading

Psalm 107:1-3, 23-32

Congregation

Leader: O give thanks to the LORD, for he is good; for his steadfast love endures for ever!

People: Let the redeemed of the LORD say so, whom he has redeemed from trouble and gathered in from the lands, from the east and from the west, from the north and the south.

Leader: Some went down to the sea in ships, doing business on the great waters; they saw the deed of the LORD, his wondrous works in the deep.

People: For he commanded, and raised the stormy wind, which lifted up the waves of the sea.

Leader: They mounted up to heaven, they went down to the depths; their courage melted away in their evil plight; they reeled and staggered and were at their wits' end.

People: Then they cried to the LORD in their trouble, and he delivered them from their distress; he made the storm be still, and the waves of the sea were hushed.

Leader: Then they were glad because they had quiet, and he brought them to their desired haven.

People: Let them thank the LORD for his steadfast love, for his wonderful works to the sons of men!

Leader: Let them extol him in the congregation of the people, and praise him in the assembly of the elders. O give thanks to the LORD, for he is good;

People: for his steadfast love endures for ever!
