St. Augustine (4th century)

You have created us for yourself,
And our hearts are restless until they rest in you.

Prelude

We Walk by Faith

Mrs. Leslie Bergbower
Gregory Hoepfner

We walk by faith and not by sight; with gracious words draw near,
O Christ, who spoke as none e'er spoke: "My peace be with you here."
For you, O resurrected Lord, are found in means divine:
Beneath the water and the word, beneath the bread and wine.

Congregation

Leader: Happy are those whose way is blameless, who walk in the law of the LORD.

People: Happy are those who keep his decrees, who seek him with their whole heart, who also do no wrong, but walk in his ways.

Leader: You have commanded your precepts to be kept diligently. O that my ways may be steadfast in keeping your statutes!

People: Then I shall not be put to shame, having my eyes fixed on all your commandments.

Leader: I will praise you with an upright heart, when I learn your righteous ordinances. I will observe your statutes; do not utterly forsake me.

People: I treasure your word in my heart, so that I may not sin against you.

Leader: Blessed are you, O LORD; teach me your statutes. With my lips I declare all the ordinances of your mouth. I delight in the way of your decrees as much as in all riches.

People: I will meditate on your precepts, and fix my eyes on your ways. I will delight in your statutes; I will not forget your word.

Leader: Give me understanding, that I may keep your law and observe it with my whole heart. Lead me in the path of your commandments, for I delight in it.

People: Turn my heart to your decrees, and not to selfish gain. Turn my eyes from looking at vanities; give me life in your ways.

All: See, I have longed for your precepts; in your righteousness give me life.
