Prayer Litany

Congregation

Leader: Gracious God, on this Sunday, the day before Memorial Day, we remember and give thanks for those who have given their lives in the service of our country.

People: We remember and give thanks.

Leader: When the need was greatest, they stepped forward and did their duty to defend the freedoms that we enjoy, and to win the same for others.

People: We remember and give thanks.

Leader: O God, you have taught us that no love is greater than that which gives itself for another. Today we remember those who gave the most precious gift they had, life itself, for loved ones and neighbors, for comrades and country—and for us.

People: We remember and give thanks.

Leader: Holy God, help us to remember that freedom is not free. There are times when its cost is, indeed, dear. Never let us forget those who paid so terrible a price to ensure that freedom would be our legacy.

People: We remember and give thanks.

Leader: Though their names may fade with the passing of generations, may we never forget what they have done. Help us to be worthy of their sacrifice. May the examples of their sacrifice inspire in us the selfless love of your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ.

People: We remember and give thanks.

Leader: Bless the families of our fallen troops, and fill their homes and their lives with your strength and peace. In union with people of goodwill of every nation, embolden us to answer the call to work for peace and justice, and thus, seek an end to violence and conflict around the globe.

All: We remember and give thanks. Amen.
