Congregation

Leader: Welcoming God, we give thanks that we can gather at your Table as a whole fellowship, a koinonia community, not a mismatch of isolated believers.

People: If we were to talk with those breaking bread with us, we might be surprised by everything brought to the Table...

anticipation,
forgotten dreams,
splendid people,
hurting hearts,
unresolved questions,
hard decisions,
desires to walk with you,
holding back.

Leader: This is long, O God. But somewhere in the midst of it Christ is walking, holding hands,
lifting up,
mending wounds,
breathing new life,
breaking bread,
pouring wine.

All: In remembrance of him, we eat the bread of life and drink the cup of the new covenant. This is the heart of the gospel. Thanks be to God!
