PASTOR'S CORNER: "TESTING THE SPIRITS"

"Then Jesus was led up by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil." Matthew 4:1, NRSV

"Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are from God; for many false prophets have gone out into the world." 1 John 4:1, NRSV

This March, we begin the Lenten season. Lent is a time for us to "test the spirits." This is the only way we can know, and recognize, which voice is from God, and which voices are not. There's a reason that Jesus' ministry began by the Holy Spirit driving him out into the wilderness.

Jesus' journey was to be a long one; it was a difficult, intentional journey that led him to walk to his own death (a miserable one, at that). Jesus' time in the wilderness was a preparation for what was to come, but it was also a time for discernment.

"What, God, do you want me to do?"

"Who should join me in the work for which you are calling me?"

"Where do you want me to go?"

"Who do you want me to go to?"

Will you join me, in this season of Lent, to test the spirits, in order to get better at hearing the still, small voice of God? Will you join First Baptist Church in a season in the wilderness, where we are sure to also come face to face with temptation, in order that we might learn true dependency upon our maker?

Our journey will begin at our Ash Wednesday service, March 6 at 6:30 p.m. in the sanctuary.

- Rev. Ryan Clore

FBC SPOTLIGHT

This month's Spotlight highlights Rev. Wallyce Todd and the nonprofit she founded/directs:

The Rev. Wallyce Todd has been connected to First Baptist Church since she was a baby in the cribs in the nursery here. In fact, her family often credits the church secretary of FBC at the time she was born for helping name her. Wallyce is the youngest daughter of the late Lionel Todd Sr. and his wife, Rita— both long-time members of FBC.

It was her oldest sister, Henrietta, 8-years-old when Wallyce was born, who answered the phone when the church secretary asked her "What have they named your new little sister?" (she was going to put it in the Contact or the bulletin, family lore recounts). Henrietta had heard her parents speak about naming the new sibling "Wallace/Wallis," but Henrietta said "Wah-lees," and the name stuck... and was added to the birth certificate that way: Martha Wallyce Todd.

As Wallyce grew up, FBC was an integral part of her childhood and beyond. She accepted Christ and was baptized here at the age of seven. She was in Mission Friends, GA's, Acteens, children's/youth choirs, Girls Ensemble and more. The Muppett Ministry, led by Frances Price and family (as well as Sandra Floyd and others), was foundational in Wallyce's spiritual growth and recognition that ministry could be extremely effective when incorporating the art of music, drama, storytelling and more. She saw how outreach that positively impacted others was at its core: caring and compassionate while staying in alignment with God's Word and telling the truth in love.

Wallyce was commissioned to the mission field by FBC in 2004. She served as a missionary journalist through Trans World Radio in Eastern Europe for two years. She was the first woman ordained by FBC in Whiteville to become a pastor in 2012 after she graduated from seminary in Los Angeles with her Master of Divinity.

Wallyce saw the serious need in our county for people to be matched with resources after Hurricane Matthew in 2016. Our community had definite needs and there were a variety of resources, but there seemed to often be a need to bridge the gap between the two. The Lord laid it on her heart to be that connection and Community CPR, as a 501(c)3, was born. The CCPR office is located in a warehouse named for another long-time member of FBC, her granddaddy, the late "Dan'l Todd." The Daniel Building can be visited by appointment at 210 E. Walter Street here in Whiteville. Since Hurricane Florence, CCPR is also operating in the warehouse beside its office.

CCPR helps our community in many different ways — with donated furniture and appliances, as well as food, clothing, housing needs, school backpack projects, advocating through case management and more. Not only does the organization help with physical needs, but they help individuals through mental and emotional support after trauma. In order to further meet the needs of the community, CCPR collaborates with a long list of other organizations (see below graphics).
