PASTOR'S CORNER

Thank you, First Baptist Church of Whiteville, for your very warm and wonderful welcome this past Sunday, February 23, 2020. I also thank Mr. Coburn Powell for his very kind introduction and welcome in the Morning Worship Service, and I appreciate your vote of confidence as a congregation as we began our ministry together. I thank Ms. Dale Duncan, Chairperson, and the other members of the Interim Pastor Search Committee who interviewed me and extended the call on behalf of your entire church for me to come share with you. You are a very gracious and loving congregation, and I truly appreciate and count it a joy, honor, and privilege to serve Jesus Christ with you. THANK YOU for your trust in extending me this call.

It also has been my pleasure to become reacquainted with Dr. Fred Senter and his sweet wife, Martha. Dr. Senter has served very effectively as your Supply Pastor. He and I were in the doctoral program during the same time at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary in Wake Forest, North Carolina. I appreciate the fine and dedicated work he has done in his service with you here in Whiteville at First Baptist Church and for the Kingdom of God. May God continue to guide and bless Dr. and Mrs. Senter in all they do and as they continue to serve here to be a blessing in this great church they love so much. I am sure you all join with me in expressing our sincere gratitude for their dedication, faithfulness, and service!

I often have heard and have quoted, The future is as bright as the promises of God! He has promised to be with us always through His Holy Spirit, and I am excited to see what He is going to lead and allow us to accomplish together. This week it was my privilege and pleasure to meet and work with your wonderful church staff. I was very impressed and thankful to get to meet and know each one of them. I shared in our staff meeting on Monday morning, as Proverbs 3:5-6 instructs us, Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct your paths.

I reminded the staff (and myself) that we all as a staff--and as a congregation--must trust each other, work together to serve each and every member of the church as we reach out in Jesus' Name and love, and always respect the gift of confidentiality as we share in ministry together. First Corinthians 3:9 reminds us that as a staff and as a congregation, We ARE laborers together with God! May God help us all to celebrate being a part of HIS family, each doing his or her part in building HIS house . . . HIS church . . . and HIS Kingdom as HE leads us together. THANK YOU for giving me the privilege of serving with you and I truly look forward to our journey together!

May God continue to guide and bless all of us as we continue to serve HIM today . . . forever . . . and always—in ALL ways! PLEASE feel free to call on me at anytime and let me know if I can ever be of help to you. You may call the church office (910.642.2139) or, my cell phone, (843.796.0397) whenever you want to arrange a time and a place to meet, ok? Let's "have fun and enjoy the journey"—as God leads us together—trusting and serving Him and giving our very best efforts as He guides us day by day. With God's help, let's pray we truly can "make Christian history together" here at the First Baptist Church of Whiteville, for whatever length of time God allows us to serve Him together, ok? Thank you!

My wife, Joy, and our entire family join me . . .

gratefully and prayerfully . . . in Jesus' Name . . . and amazing love and grace . . .

Wayne Brown

MUSIC NOTES

The Season of Lent began with Ash Wednesday. Traditionally, Lent is the season for personal and corporate spiritual renewal. It is a time for deep study of God's Word, for meditation, for prayer, and for self-examination. It begins quietly with ashes and builds in intensity as the observance of Christ's death and resurrection grow closer. May we each seek spiritual renewal in God during this Lenten Season.

Sundays in Lent, March 1, 8, 15, 22, 29
Palm Sunday, April 5
Maundy Thursday, April 9
Good Friday, April 10
Easter Sunday, April 12

The Youth Choir will participate in the Festival by the Sea, March 6-8. The festival involves over 350 youth singers from churches in the Southeast. The festival concludes with a Sunday morning worship incorporating the music the youth have prepared.

Do you have musical talents presently not being used? All of our choirs invite you to join the Music Ministry here at First Baptist.

FBC SPOTLIGHT

This month's Spotlight highlights our new Interim Pastor and his wife, Dr. Wayne and Mrs. Joy Brown.

Milton Wayne Brown is a native South Carolinian. He was born in Spartanburg, but “grew up” in his hometown of Blacksburg, where he made his profession of faith, was baptized, married, and was ordained into the ministry (1970) at First Baptist Church of Blacksburg.

Wayne graduated from Blacksburg High School in 1963. He graduated from Limestone College in Gaffney with a BA in Sociology and Psychology (1967). He received the Master of Divinity and the Doctor of Ministry degrees (1970 and 1973 respectively) from Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary in Wake Forest, North Carolina and attended the School of Pastoral Care at the North Carolina Baptist Hospital in Winston-Salem (1969).

While serving as a Student Summer Missionary with the Home Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention in New Mexico and Arizona in 1965, Wayne says God confirmed His call to him for the ministry. He served as Minister of Music at the Providence Baptist Church in Gaffney, South Carolina from 1965-1967, while a student at Limestone College, and was licensed into the ministry by that church in 1965. During his first year of seminary he served as Student Chaplain and Minister of Music at the Murdoch School in Butner, North Carolina.

In the spring of 1969, Wayne served as Minister of Youth at the Rock Spring Baptist Church in Bunn/Louisburg, North Carolina and in the same position during the summer of 1969 at the Converse Baptist Church in Converse, South Carolina.

Wayne is married (August 16, 1969) to the former Joyce Ann (Joy) Clary, and they are blessed with two precious daughters, Meri Beth and Molly and their wonderful families. Meri Beth and her husband, Thomas Howard, live in Kings Mountain, North Carolina with their son, Ty, (11). Molly and her husband, Christman Howard, live in Myrtle Beach with their children, Mazi Grace (11) and Bronson (10). (Their daughters married first cousins.)

The Browns have served in ministry together in churches including: Millbrook Baptist Church in Raleigh, North Carolina (1969-1975) as Associate Pastor and Minister of Music, Education and Youth; First Baptist Church in Winston-Salem, North Carolina (1975-1977) as Associate Pastor and Minister of Youth and College Ministries.

The Browns have pastored the following churches: West End Baptist Church, Gaffney, South Carolina (1977-1984); West Monmouth Baptist Church, Freehold, New Jersey (1984-1988); First Baptist Church, Myrtle Beach, South Carolina (1988-2003) and First Baptist Church, Boone, North Carolina (2003-2008).

The Browns have served in Interim Pastorates at the following churches: Pleasant Meadow Baptist Church, Loris South Carolina (2013-2014); Olyphic Baptist Church, Olyphic, North Carolina (2014-2015); First Baptist Church, North Myrtle Beach, South Carolina (2015-2017); First Baptist Church, Florence, South Carolina (2018); and Pleasant View Baptist Church, Nichols, South Carolina (2019).

Joy and Wayne founded DIVERSIFIED MINISTRIES, their faith-based organization based in Myrtle Beach, South Carolina to share the Good News of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, and entered that fulltime in 2008 as an outreach ministry for missions, evangelism, encouragement, and the production of Christian literature locally, nationally, and globally. They use diverse methods . . . to reach diverse people . . . who have diverse needs as a BRIDGE for Building Relationships Individually Domestically Globally Evangelistically!

Joy is a published author and is a motivational speaker for retreats and conferences. She also interprets in sign language for the deaf.
